The recent deaths of four long-term heads of state in the Arab world heralded important changes, as political power passed from one generation to the next. Shedding light on these changes, Arab Elites explores the attitudes and political agendas of the new leadership emerging throughout the region.

A strong analytical framework informs the authors’ discussion of elites in Algeria, Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, Morocco, the Palestinian National Authority, Saudi Arabia, Syria, and Tunisia. The result is a portrait of the current state, and likely future, of politics in the Arab Middle East.

Volker Perthes is head of the Middle East and Africa Research Group at the German Institute for International and Security Affairs, Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik. His extensive publications on the Arab World include Geheime Gärten: die neue Arabische Welt [Secret Gardens: The New Arab World].
